

Dining Diva

There's never a dull moment in Chicago's restaurants and lounges!

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 15, 2009

Weekend Cannot Get Any Sweeter Than This . . .

Saturday is Sweetest Day. Do you have plans yet?!

If not, allow 312DD to pub some of our favorite spots when it comes to a little romance. Plus, if you're feeling a little philanthropic, these restos as well as 100 more are participating in the *In Good Taste: A Breast Cancer Research Initiative* sponsored by the Lynn Sage Foundation. One dollar from each check benefits the worthy organization.

Gold Coast gem *Le Colonial* offers an amazing prix fixe menu Saturday for $50 per person. You'll get an appetizer, entrée, dessert and glass of cava.

Also, we love the Thali Platter at exotic Uptown eatery *Marigold Indian Restaurant*. It comes with three tasting portions of curries paired with naan and basmati rice. We highly recommend the succulent Lamb Vindaloo and Murg Makhni (boneless spiced chicken simmered in tomato cream sauce).

And those looking for late-night cocktails should head to *Perennial's* picturesque corner lounge in Lincoln Park. Just sink into one of the many colorful sofas and indulge in a tasty B2, made with Basil's Hayden bourbon, basil-infused simple syrup and a touch of orange bitters.